

Eliminate the law completely. It reduces the number of jobs available to students, people with certain disabilities. stay-at-home moms and people looking for part-time jobs. People have a right to make a living, this law takes away the opportunity from thousands of people.